

Career Opportunity

Technical Service Support

This is a great opportunity to apply your craft of technical and application support for our HVAC and Solar PV products.

Responsibilities:

- Possess strong technical and application knowledge in the HVAC industry, Photovoltaic knowledge a plus.
- Provide day to day technical support via phone and or onsite assistance as required to support HVAC products sold.
- Responsible for administering and communicating factory corrective action programs, bulletins, concessions and warranty claim process for dealers. Act as direct go between factory and dealers in technical and performance issues.
- Strong ability to resolve complex technical issues, manage multiple task in a high-pressure environment.
- Attend factory training and technical conferences to remain up to date on the latest technology and equipment advancement introduced by the manufactures.
- Provide technical direction and guidance to team members

Qualifications:

- Strong communication skills, ability in assisting dealers in resolving field technical and application issues.
- 5 years HVAC installation &/or service experience
- Strong troubleshooting and critical thinking skills
- Ability to prioritize and multitask
- Deadline and detail-oriented

Submit resumes and cover letters to Dawn Kehrwald at: dkehrwald@cfmequip.com

About CFM Equipment Distributors, Inc:

We have been a leading distributor of HVAC and solar products for over 30 years. CFM Equipment Distributors employs innovative, creative individuals that are motivated to succeed. We offer great benefits including medical, dental, 401(k), education assistance, vacation/sick leave and paid holidays. We promote a friendly, cooperative, team environment. Do you want to be a part of a team that values your teamwork and excellence?